MILITARY INNOVATION

ODA NOBUNAGA IS KNOWN AS THE FIRST GREAT UNIFIER OF JAPAN - A DAIMYŌ WHO OVERTHREW THE ASHIKAGA SHOGUNATE AND ENDED YEARS OF FEUDAL WARS IN JAPAN

He is said to be a tall, thin, and scantily bearded man. He is highly ambitious which made him ruthless but he is also said to be a realistic leader, admired for his ability to make difficult decisions.

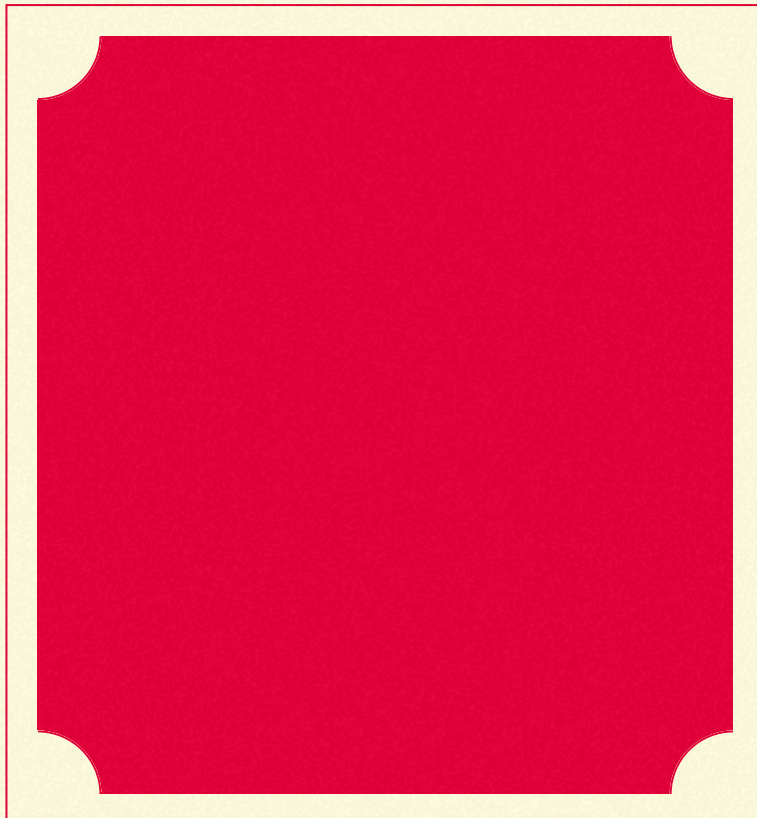

AZUCHI CASTLE SERVED AS A SYMBOL OF POWER AND AMBITION

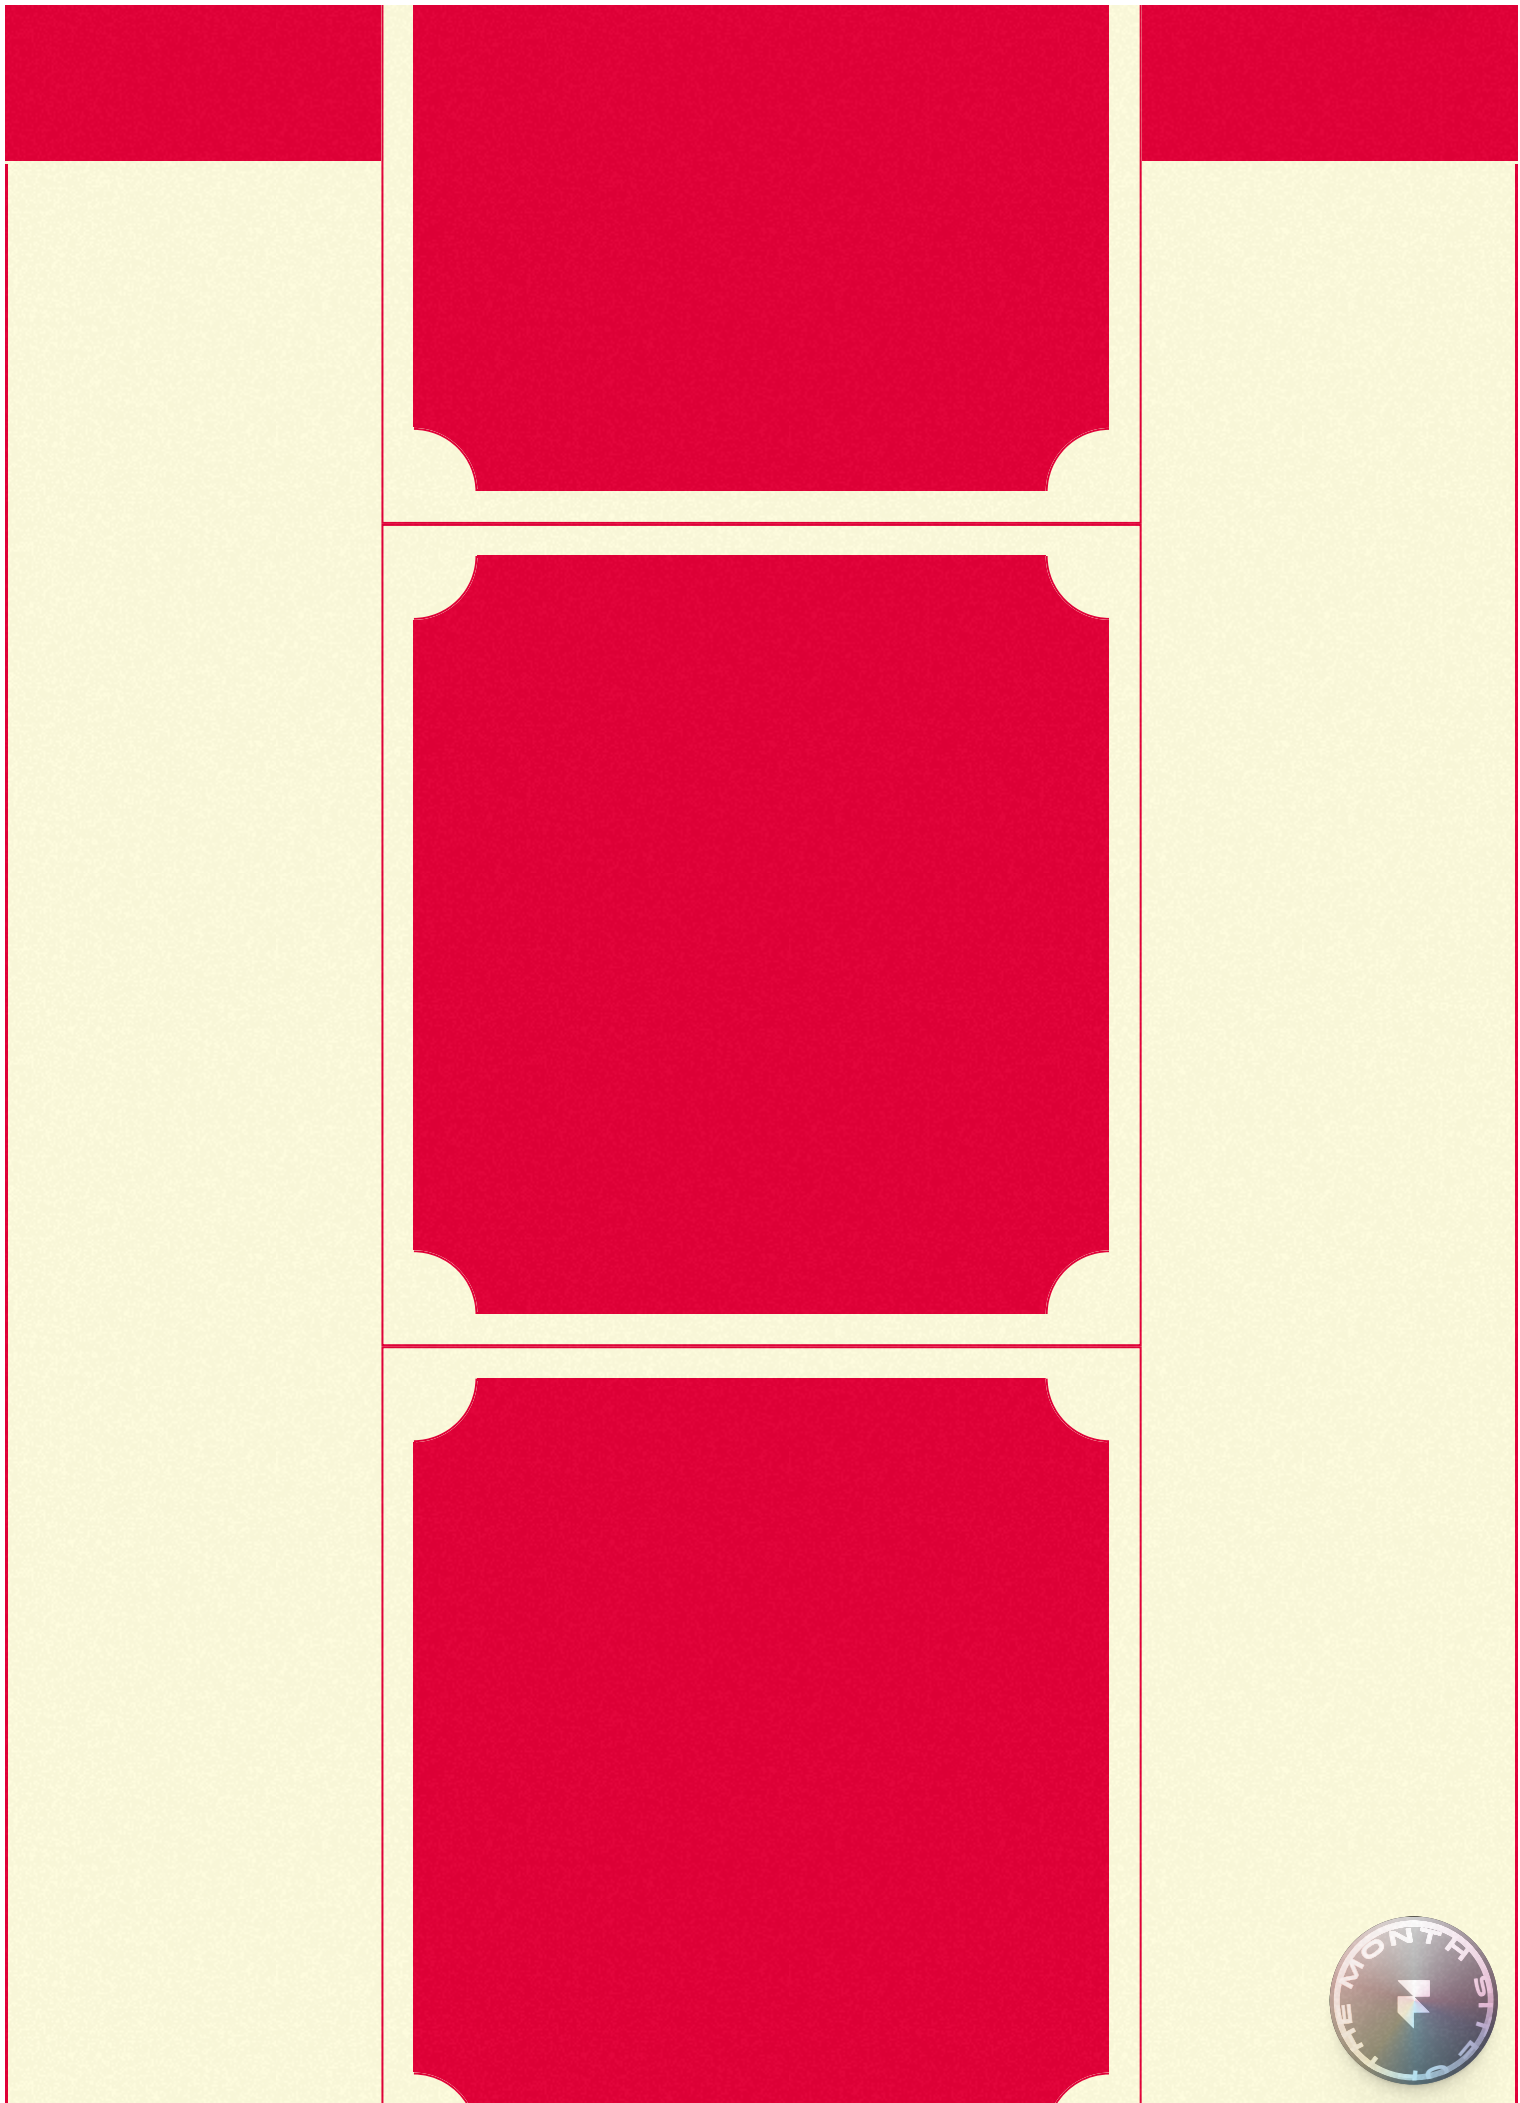

This is an incredibly strategic move by Nobunaga to select a new base overlooking Lake Biwa because it gave him a significant advantage and control over the Tokaido and Nakasendo roads - the key highways to Kyoto.

BATTLE STRATEGY

Nobunaga's battle strategy was marked by innovation and aggression. His surprise attacks, use of firearms and willingness to adopt new technologies gave him a significant edge on the battlefield.

PIVOTAL MOMENTS

Nobunaga's pivotal moments during his reign were marked by strategic victories, ambitious projects, and ruthless suppression of opposition

1560 BATTLE OF OKEHAZAMA

1567 SIEGE OF INABAYAMA CASTLE

1568 CONQUEST OF KYOTO

1575 BATTLE OF NAGASHINO

1582 HONNŌ-JI INCIDENT
